The application should in this case be addressed to the Amildar of the Taluk concerned under the same conditions as above. He will receive the application and the amounts of the bill and commission sent therewith and grant a receipt in the prescribed form and obtain the required supply bill from the District Treasury concerned and deliver it to the party on his surrendering the receipt originally granted.

5. Supply bills will be drawn only on the District Treasuries. But such bills will, as far as possible, be made payable at any Taluk Treasury within the district drawn upon. For payment at a Taluk Treasury, however, the payee will have to address the Deputy Commissioner, Treasury Department, of the district, who will arrange for such payment as early as practicable.

J. S. CHAKRAVARTI,
Comptroller.

HASSAN DISTRICT.

Notification dated 5th December 1911.

Depositors in the Mysore Government Savings Bank in the Arkalgud Taluk Treasury, Hassan District, are requested to present their Savings Bank Pass Books thereat for entry of interest that has accrued up to end of the year 1910-11.

M. SREENIVASA MURTI,
For Deputy Commissioner, Treasury Department.

MISCELLANEOUS.

OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES IN MYSORE.

Notification No. 418—C. S. 24, dated 15—17*th December* 1911.

The undermentioned Co-operative Societies were registered under Section 6, clause (2), of the Mysore Co-operative Societies Regulation, III of 1905, on the dates mentioned against them :—

Name of the Society	Place	Date of Registration
1. Kadalu Biralingeswaraswami Paraspara Sahaya Sangha, Unlimited.	Kadalu, Alur Sub-Taluk	22nd November 1911.
2. Mosale Sri Anjaneyadevara Anyonya Sahaya Sangha, Unlimited.	Mosale, Hassan Taluk ...	Do
3. Dodda Agrahar Co-operative Society, Unlimited.	Dodda Agrahar, Sira Taluk.	Do
4. Bukkapatna Srinivasa Sahaya Sangha, Unlimited.	Bukkapatna, Sira Taluk	Do
5. Mukanahallipatna Sri Lakshmi Nrisimhaswami Co-operative Society, Unlimited.	Mukanahalli, Gubbi Taluk.	25th November 1911.

Notification No. 420—C. S. 24, dated the 17*th December* 1911.

The following model bye-laws of a Co-operative Society, Limited, of wage-earners working in a mine, factory or office, or several such offices located close together are published for general information.

M. A. NARAYANA IYENGAR,
Officiating Registrar.

Bye-laws of the..... .....
Co-operative Society, Limited.

1. Name of the Society.—This Society shall be called the... ....
....Society, Limited.

2. Registered office.—Its registered office shall be located at..... ....
....
.....

3. The operation of the Society shall be confined to..... .....
....

4. (1) Share capital.—There shall be.....shares in the Society, of the value of Rs..... each, payable in monthly instalments of... ....each

(2) Each share shall be entered under a distinctive number and shares shall be issued consecutively.

(3) No member shall be allowed to hold more than hundred shares and every member shall hold at least one share.

(4) Shares shall not be transferable.

5. Liability of members.—The liability of each member shall be to the extent of the share or shares allotted to him.

6. Objects.—The objects of the Society are :—

(a) the promotion of thrift by affording the members of the Society a means to save a portion of their income, on which a fair return may be expected in the way of interest.

(b) the prevention of outside indebtedness by enabling members to borrow from the Society on reasonable terms and rates of interest; and

(c) such other object or objects calculated to promote the economic benefit of the members as may be resolved upon by the Society and approved by the Registrar.

7. Membership.—Members of the Society shall consist of—

(1) The persons who have subscribed to the application for registration.

(2) Persons, who, after the registration of the Society, are, from time to time, admitted as members under these bye-laws.

8. All persons of the..... ..community above the age of eighteen years, of respectable character and sound mind, residing..... ....and earning monthly remuneration by service in..... .. ..shall be eligible for membership in the Society.

9. Every person desirous of becoming a member shall apply in writing to the Secretary in the prescribed form supported by two members of the Society and shall tender with the application an entrance fee of eight annas for membership and a share fee calculated at the rate of one anna per share for the number of shares that he wishes to subscribe for. The signatories to the application for registration shall likewise pay the entrance fee and share fee.

10. On receipt of the admission application, the Secretary shall place it before the Committee. The Committee may reject any application for admission without assigning any reasons, in which case the amount tendered with the application shall be refunded to the applicant. If the Committee grant the application for membership, but allot to the member less shares than those applied for, they shall return to him the extra share fee tendered by him.

11. Any person whose application for admission is rejected by the Committee may appeal to the general body of members provided that such appeal is supported in writing by at least fifteen members of the Society. The appeal shall be decided at the general meeting following the receipt of the appeal.

12. Every person accepted as a member must sign or affix his mark to a register of members, such signature or mark being attested by a member.

13. Every person accepted as a member shall pay the value of his shares in monthly instalments of ....per share before the 15th of each month. Instalments not yet due may be paid beforehand, wholly or partially.

14. Every person shall, after signing the register of members and paying at least one instalment of the value of the share or shares allotted to him, be deemed to have become a member of the Society and to have acquired all its rights and liabilities.

15. Members who fail to pay their share instalments in time shall be charged a penalty at the rate of three pies per each share instalment in default per month or fractions of a month.

16. No member may resign his membership and shares in the Society within..... months from the date of his admission. But the Committee have the power to accept resignations within this period for good and sufficient reasons.

17. Cessation of membership.—Membership shall cease—

(a) by resignation,

(b) by removals as hereinafter prescribed,

(c) by bankruptcy, and

(d) by death.

18. In case of cessation of membership otherwise than by death, the person ceasing to be a member shall have the right to receive not later than three months from the date of such cessation, the subscribed value of his share or shares together with any dividend or interest or other sum admissible under the bye-laws, after deduction of all sums due by him to the Society; but he shall have no claim on the reserve or any other assets of the Society.

19. (1) The Committee shall have the power to remove a member for being in default in respect of any sum due to the Society for three months.

(2) The Committee shall have the power to remove any member for any act which in its opinion is likely to be injurious to the credit, reputation or interests of the Society or for a serious breach of the bye-laws or subsidiary rules, provided that two-thirds (⅔) of the members of the Committee unanimously consent to such removal. The member so removed may appeal to the general body against the decision of the Committee at the next general meeting.

(3) The Committee shall remove any person who permanently gives up his employment on the..... .....and in such case all loans due by him will be recovered without any reference to the period for which the loan was issued.

20. Within one month of the receipt of reliable information of the death of a member, the Committee shall be bound to pay into the deposit account the subscribed value of his share or shares; and his heir or nominee shall be entitled, within three months of such payments into the deposit account, and on the Committee being reasonably satisfied as to the validity of his claim, to receive the full paid-up value of the deceased's share or shares with any admissible dividend or interest or other sum due to him, after deduction of all sums due by him to the Society, unless the heir or nominee being a member of the Society, is desirous of taking up the said share or shares, or any of them, or unless not being already a member of the Society, he is admitted as a member and is desirous as aforesaid, in either of which cases the share or shares shall be transferred to his name.

(2) Nothing contained in clause (1) shall be deemed to prevent the Committee in special circumstances where money may be required to meet the expenses of the funeral of a deceased member or the immediate and pressing needs of his family, from making to such member's nominee at any time such advance out of the sums due to the deceased's account as they may think fit.

21. Capital.—The working capital of the Society shall consist of

(1) entrance donations,

(2) the subscribed share amounts,

(3) such portion of the half-yearly profits as may be credited to reserve in accordance with a resolution of the Society,

(4) deposits and

(5) any other receipts assignable to capital.

22. Raising of loans.—With the previous sanction of the Society and the approval of the Registrar, the Committee may raise a loan for any authorised purpose to such extent, in such manner, and on such terms as may be approved by the Society, provided that the amount of the loan raised together with the deposits, if any, received from non-members shall not together exceed at any one time double the amount of the paid-up share capital.

23. Deposits.—(1) The Committee may receive deposits from members; and to such extent, if any, as may be authorised by the Society and the Registrar, also from non-members.

(2) No sum that is less than one rupee shall be received in deposit nor shall fractions of a rupee count towards interest.

(3) Deposits shall be either current or fixed.

(4) Current deposits may be withdrawn at any time in whole or in part; but for sums over rupees ten, three days notice may, at discretion, be demanded.

(5) Current deposits shall carry an interest of 4 per cent calculated on the minimum balance of the account between the close of the 4th day and the end of the month.

(6) Fixed deposits may be either for six months or one year. In the former case an interest of 5 per cent will be allowed and in the latter 6 per cent. Fixed deposits cannot be withdrawn before the expiry of the period for which they are fixed.

(7) Fractions of a pie accruing as interest on deposits will not be paid by the Society.

24. The maximum amount of credit to be allowed to a member and his sureties shall not at any time exceed 90 per cent of the paid-up value of their shares, deposits and monthly remunerations in their . ..... nor shall any loan be issued for a longer period than one year.

25. Loans to be issued to members will be of three classes:—

(1) Hand loan of 90 per cent of the pay earned by the borrower and his sureties, repayable on the next pay day. This will carry interest at.....per rupee per week, fractions of a week or rupee being treated as a whole week or rupee.

(2) Loans not exceeding Rs. 100, to the extent of 90 per cent of the paid-up share and deposit of the member and his sureties repayable in five monthly instalments. This will carry interest at .. pies per rupee per month, payable in advance every month, for the balance then outstanding on the pay day.

(3) Loans exceeding Rs. 100 to the extent of 90 per cent of the paid-up share and deposit of the member and his sureties repayable in ten monthly instalments. This will also carry interest as the loan described in No. (2) above.

26. Compound interest shall not be charged.

27. Payment in part or entirety of any loan may be accepted before maturity.

28. Applicants for loans shall fully state the purposes for which the loans are wanted. No loan shall be granted except for purposes considered necessary and beneficial by the Committee.

29. The Committee shall withdraw the whole loan before maturity if it is satisfied that the loan has been utilized for any purpose other than that for which it was granted.

30. The Committee may at their discretion grant one renewal of any loan for a further period not exceeding the term fixed originally, provided that at least one half of the amount of the loan is repaid at maturity. But no such renewal shall be granted except with the consent in writing of the surety or sureties, if any.

31. In cases of default in payment of loans when they fall due, penal interest shall be charged on the full amount of loan or the instalment in default at 1½ times the rate at which the loan was issued.

32. Applicants for loans must not be in default of any previous transaction with, or of any liability to the Society, or with or to a surety.

33. After making all such enquiries as may be necessary, the Committee shall either grant or refuse to grant the loan applied for, due intimation of their decision being given within 15 days from the date of the application.

34. No loan shall be given otherwise than on a promissory note or other instrument to be executed by and at the expense of the borrower; provided that where the amount of the loan exceeds the paid-up share capital, deposits and remuneration already earned by the borrower, the promissory note or other instrument shall be executed jointly and severally by the borrower and one or more sureties from among the members.

35. Absolute punctuality of repayment shall be enforced on pain of the penalty prescribed above in by-law No. 31 for ordinary and excusable defaults, and of expulsion for grave or persistent defaults.

36. Should a borrower fail to repay his loan within the stipulated date, his loan account shall at once be closed and a notice shall be issued to him demanding payment of the amount found due by him, together with the penal interest up to date of settlement.

37. The accounts of the Society shall be closed every half-year at the close of December and June and a balance sheet prepared and published at the half-yearly general meeting of the members of the Society and a copy sent to the Registrar immediately.

38. In calculating the profits either annually or half-early, only money accrued due and actually received shall be taken into account as receipt. Unpaid interest shall not be reckoned. Of the net profits after payment of interest to depositors and other creditors, if any, as well as working expenses, such portion not less than 25 per cent as may be determined by the Society shall be carried to the Reserve Fund. Out of the remainder, dividends may be distributed among the members in such manner as the Managing Committee under the general directions, if any, of the Society and the Registrar may settle from time to time.

39. The Reserve Fund shall consist of—

(1) sums periodically devoted to it out of profits;

(2) penalties paid by members; and

(3) such other sums as may be generally prescribed or periodically assigned by the Society.

40. The Reserve Fund shall be deposited in the Government Savings Bank, the Bangalore Central Co-operative Bank, Limited, or such other institution as the Registrar may advise.

41. No portion of the Reserve Fund shall be utilized for any purpose without the sanction of the Registrar.

42. General Meetings.—The supreme authority in the Society in all matters affecting its administration, shall be vested in the Society, i.e., the general body of members of the Society as assembled at a meeting.

43. Meetings of the Society shall be of two kinds, ordinary and extraordinary :—

(1) Ordinary meetings shall be held at least twice every year on such dates and at such places as may be determined by the Committee, in the months of January and July.

(2) The Committee may, whenever they think fit and shall, upon a requisition in writing signed by any 15 or more members, convene an extraordinary meeting of the Society. In the latter case, the requisition shall specify the business proposed to be placed before the meeting, and shall be left at the registered office of the Society.

44. Notices of meetings of the Society shall be posted up at the office of the Society at least seven days before the dates of holding such meetings, and shall specify the subjects to be discussed at or placed before the meetings.

(1) No business shall be transacted at any meetings of the Society, unless a quorum of members is present, such quorum being ascertainable as follows, that is to say, if the total number of members on the rolls does not exceed ten, the quorum shall be five, if it exceeds ten there shall be added to the above quorum one for every ten additional members with this limitation, that the quorum shall not in any case exceed twenty members.

(2) If within one hour from the time appointed for a meeting, a quorum is not present the meeting if convened upon the requisition of fifteen or more members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall be postponed to a date at least six days and not more than four weeks ahead.

(3) No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place, or a business of which the prescribed notice shall have been duly given.

45. At every meeting of the Society every person duly admitted to membership is entitled to be present and, if qualified under bye-law 14 to vote, provided that he is not in default to the Society in any way.

46. All questions before a general meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes and when votes are equal, the President or the presiding member shall have a casting vote.

47. No voting by proxy shall be allowed except by special permission of the Chairman of the meeting in the case of females.

48. Committee of Management.—The management of the current business of the Society of all kinds shall be entrusted to a Committee consisting of 10 members, who shall be elected by the Society for a term of one year or until their successors are appointed. The retiring members shall be eligible for re-election, to the number of seven.

(1) Any casual vacancy occurring in the Committee shall be filled up by the remaining members; provided that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall retain his office so long only as the person in whose stead he is chosen would have done if no vacancy had occurred.

49. The powers and duties of the Committee shall be as follows—

(1) To dispose of applications for membership.

(2) To dispose of applications for loans.

(3) To hear and dispose of complaints.

(4) To make all appointments on the staff of the Society and to grant leave to, to fine, to suspend or dismiss any employee on the staff.

(5) To receive and disburse moneys belonging to the Society and to take stock from time to time of all its goods and other properties.

(6) To keep the accounts of the Society.

(7) To check the accounts, to examine the vouchers, and to prepare at the close of June and December, a balance sheet showing clearly the extent of the business done by the Society under specific heads, including all receipts and expenditure, the arrears due on loans and shares, the assets and liabilities of the Society, the amount of the Reserve Fund and the Society's general position financially. Such balance sheets, with statements of profits and losses, shall be published for the information of the members and depositors in such manner as may be desirable and convenient, and not later than a month from the close of June and December.

(8) To frame subsidiary rules not inconsistent with these bye-laws and bring them into force with the approval of the Registrar.

(9) To perform all other acts connected with the administration of the Society and the transaction of its business, which are not by these bye-laws specifically reserved to the Society.

50. The Committee shall be responsible to the Society for all their acts and its Secretary and Treasurer may be paid such honoraria as the Society may fix with the approval of the Registrar.

51. The Committee shall meet as often as necessary at least once every month, and at every such meeting the President or Vice-President, the Secretary and five other members of the Committee shall form a quorum.

(1) All questions shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

(2) No member of the Committee shall vote on any application for a loan in which he himself is interested as borrower or surety.

52. The Committee shall select from among themselves—

(1) a President,

(2) a Vice-President,

(3) a Secretary,

(4) a Treasurer, and

(5) such other office-bearers as may from time to time be considered necessary. No person shall hold the same office for more than two consecutive years.

(a) The Secretary shall have power to sign papers and transact business on behalf of and under the instructions of the Committee.

(b) The custody of the Society's Funds shall be with the President, Treasurer and Secretary jointly. They may retain in their hands cash to the extent of Rs. 10 (ten) only, all additional sums being deposited in the Treasury, the Mysore Government Savings Bank, or the Post Office Savings Bank.

(c) The duties of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and other office-bearers, if any, shall be as from time to time defined by the Committee.

53. The Committee may from time to time appoint as many sub-committees as may be needed for the transaction of the Society's business.

(1) All sub-committees shall be subject to the general control of the Committee and shall act under the Committee's instructions.

54. The Society may become a member of and take shares in the Bangalore Central Co-operative Bank, Limited.

55. Any claim or dispute in respect of the business of the Society between any person or Society who is or has been a member, depositor or creditor of the Society or who claims through any one who is or has been a member, depositor or creditor, and such Society or its Committee or any of its officers, shall be referred to the Registrar for decision. No Civil Court shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate any such matters.

(1) The Registrar's decision shall be final and conclusive unless appealed against to Government within one month from the date of such decision or order.

(2) All orders passed by the Registrar may be executed either by him or through a Deputy Commissioner or through the heads of various offices in which the members are employed.

56. All dues payable to the Society by the members either for share instalments, loans or interest may be deducted out of their wages and paid by their employers direct to the Society on a requisition in writing presented by the Secretary of the Society. Such payments shall exonerate the employers from further liability for such sums either to the members or other persons claiming through them.

PUBLIC ADVERTISEMENTS.

KOLAR DISTRICT.

Firewood Notice.

Sealed tenders at so much per ton will be received at the District Forest Office, Kolar up to 4th January 1912 for cutting and removing standing chigare trees in Coupe No. 1 of Block V, Kamasandra State Forest, Malur Range.

For further particulars, the attention of the public is invited to Notification dated 4th December 1911, published in Part II, page 1442, of the Mysore Gazette dated 7th December 1911.

H. RAMAIYA,
District Forest Officer.